

Touch Bionics Terms & Conditions

1. Intellectual Property

This site is owned and operated by Touch Bionics Inc. and Touch EMAS Limited ("TEL").

Touch Bionics™, LIVINGSKIN™, DermaHair™, i-LIMB Hand™, SeasonGuard™, i-LIMB™ and ProDigits™ and associated logos are trademarks of Touch EMAS Limited and /or are the subject of trademark applications or registrations in various countries around the world. All Touch EMAS products are subject to continuous research and development - we therefore reserve the right to alter technical specifications without prior notice. Touch EMAS products are protected by patent and/or patent applications in various countries around the world.

2. Limitations of Liability

While TEL endeavours to ensure the accuracy of information and materials on the Website, the Website is provided "as is" and TEL makes no representations or warranties of any kind, either express or implied, regarding the materials and information contained on the Website. Accordingly, to the maximum extent permitted by law, TEL accepts no responsibility, and excludes all liability, for damage and loss which may be suffered by any other party as a result of using or in connection with such use or loss of use of this Website (including but not limited to loss of profit, loss of opportunity, loss of business, indirect damages, incidental damages or special or consequential loss).

In particular, while TEL aims to ensure that the practitioners listed on the Website have acquired the necessary accreditation and that their contact details are complete and accurate, TEL disclaims any liability in relation to this information. You are therefore advised to validate the professional qualifications of your practitioner before you rely on any advice or receive any treatment from them.

3. Rights of Access

Your right to use the Website is not transferable. Any password or right given to you to obtain information or documents is not transferable.

4. Availability

TEL cannot guarantee uninterrupted access to this Website (which may be affected by conditions and performances outside TEL's control), or the sites to which it links. TEL may at any time modify or interrupt all or part of the site in order to perform maintenance, improvements or changes, and accepts no responsibility for any damages arising from the loss of use of information.

5. Links

Links are provided for information and convenience only. TEL cannot accept responsibility for the contents or reliability of sites linked to, or the information found there. A link does not imply an endorsement of a site; likewise, not linking to a particular site does not imply lack of endorsement.

TEL encourages organisations and individuals to create hypertext links to the Website without the need to request permission to do so. Be aware that specific page URL addresses are subject to change without notice.

6. Use of images

TEL has provided some high quality images of the i-LIMB™ Hand, either as low resolution images, or via zip files containing high resolution images. Permission is granted to reproduce these images in connection with news coverage. All other rights are reserved.

7. Privacy statements

TEL is committed to respecting the privacy of individuals using this Website and does not use cookies to track or log information about users.

All information submitted through forms on the Website (e.g. 'Contact Us') is transferred to TEL by email, and will be dealt with in accordance with data protection legislation. Emails are not encrypted and, as the internet is not always secure, users are sending the information at their own risk. By submitting your data to us, you grant to us the right to use, reproduce, modify or transmit this data in the aim of processing your request (e.g. to provide users with your contact information via 'Find a Clinician').

Any changes to TEL's privacy policy will be posted on the Website homepage so users are always aware of what information we collect and how we use it.
